Special Event Station "S.E.S." 3ATXXX/200ID

Brazil, August 12, 2022.

The history of the Independence of BRAZIL began in 1808, Dom João VI, Prince Regent of Portugal, landed in Brazil with his family fleeing the troops of the French Emperor Napoleon Bonaparte.

On April 26, 1821, just over ten years later, the Portuguese population demanded the return of the royal family to Portugal. Dom João VI embarked, but left a provisional government commanded by his son, Dom Pedro I.

Contrary to the Portuguese court, "D. Pedro I" did not return to Portugal and was acclaimed by the Brazilian people to stay in Brazil and become its Emperor.

During the "Dia do Fico", in January 1822, D. Pedro declared that he would remain in Brazil.

The independence of Brazil took place on September 7, 1822, having as a major milestone the cry for independence that was made by Pedro de Alcântara (D. Pedro I), on the banks of the Ipiranga River in the city of São Paulo. With Brazil's independence declared, the country became a monarchy with the coronation of D. Pedro I on December 1, 1822.

However, the process of Independence of Brazil was not peaceful and we had many conflicts and a lot of blood was spilled.

As this historic event is so important for our country, and with the arrival of the bicentennial commemorating the same event, Alfa Tango requests authorization to carry out an S.E.S. from the 3rd to the 11th of September 2022.
