Argentina, Marzo 24, 2023.

It took 36 years for the star that completes the triad to be embroidered on the shirt of the Argentine team. 36 years to see the best player in the world lift the coveted Cup with the Albiceleste jersey after almost four decades.

Argentina was the best team in one of the best World Cups of all time. But that is not enough to win it. Nor do more goals. Nor have the ball anymore. Nor kick more to the goal. Nor have better tactical and technical arguments. None of that is enough to be world champion.

On top of everything, or perhaps above all, you need an intangible ingredient that doesn't even have a name. Mystique could be. Or luck. Or star. In this case, it was a certainty of fate. Argentina played like champion because it knew that it was going to be.

"I knew that at some point God was going to give it to me and I don't know why I had a presentiment and I felt that it was going to be this," said Lionel Messi in the middle of the celebrations. His presentiment was replicated first by his teammates and coaching staff and then by the 47 million Argentine men and women. All together we believed it was possible, we envisioned it and we provoked it.

And what happened was that the popular force, the talent and the character of the national team created a destination of glory, contrary to a grim reality. We gave life to a destiny. We build a moment for all eternity.
